1. Introduction

This Cookie Policy explains how Reboot Digital Forensic Training Ltd (“we”, “us”, “our”) uses cookies and similar tracking technologies when you visit our website at www.rebootforensic.co.uk (“the Website”).

It should be read alongside our Privacy & Data Processing Policy, which sets out how we collect and use your personal data more broadly.

By continuing to use our Website after being presented with our cookie consent banner, you agree to our use of cookies in accordance with this policy. You may withdraw or adjust your consent at any time (see Section 7).

2. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device (computer, smartphone, tablet) when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work, or work more efficiently, and to provide information to website operators.

We may also use similar tracking technologies such as:

- Pixel tags / web beacons: tiny images embedded in web pages or emails that register when a page or email is opened.
- Local storage: browser-based storage that allows us to save preferences on your device without using cookies.
- Session storage: temporary data held only for the duration of a browser session, automatically deleted when you close the browser.

For simplicity, we refer to all of these technologies collectively as “cookies” throughout this policy.

3. Who Sets Cookies on Our Website?

Cookies on our Website are set by two categories of party:

- First-party cookies: set directly by Reboot Digital Forensic Training Ltd and used only by us.
- Third-party cookies: set by external organisations whose content, tools, or services we have embedded in our Website (for example, analytics providers or video platforms). These organisations have their own privacy and cookie policies.

4. Categories of Cookies We Use

We group the cookies on our Website into four categories, as described below. The table in Section 5 lists specific cookies by category.

4.1 Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the Website to function and cannot be switched off. They are usually set in response to actions you take, such as logging in, filling in forms, or setting privacy preferences. You can set your browser to block these cookies, but some parts of the Website may then not work.

Lawful basis: These cookies do not require your consent because they are strictly necessary to deliver a service you have requested (Regulation 6(4) of PECR / Article 6(1)(b) UK GDPR).

4.2 Analytics & Performance Cookies

These cookies collect information about how visitors use our Website — for example, which pages are visited most often and whether visitors receive error messages. All information is aggregated and therefore anonymous. We use it to improve how our Website works.

Lawful basis: Consent (Regulation 6(1) PECR). You may withdraw consent at any time.

4.3 Functional / Preference Cookies

These cookies allow the Website to remember choices you make (such as your preferred language or region) and provide enhanced, more personalised features. They may also be used to provide services you have requested, such as watching a video or saving a login.

Lawful basis: Consent (Regulation 6(1) PECR). You may withdraw consent at any time.

4.4 Marketing & Targeting Cookies

These cookies are set through our Website by advertising partners. They may be used to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant advertising on other websites. They work by uniquely identifying your browser and device.

We do not currently use marketing cookies on our Website. Should we introduce them in the future, we will update this policy and seek your consent before placing any such cookies.

5. Cookies We Currently Use

The table below lists the specific cookies currently in use on our Website. We review and update this list when cookies change.

Cookie Name	Category	Purpose	Duration

Please note this list may not be exhaustive. We regularly review cookies in use and will update this table accordingly.

6. Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies on our Website are placed by third-party service providers. We do not control these cookies, and they are subject to the third party's own privacy and cookie policies. Current third-party providers whose cookies may be present include:

Google Analytics	Analytics service measuring website traffic and behaviour. Google Privacy Policy: policies.google.com/privacy
Vimeo / YouTube	Video hosting services used to embed training preview content. These providers may set cookies when you play a video.

Payment Processors

Secure payment pages may set cookies necessary to process transactions. These operate under their own PCI-DSS compliant policies.

We recommend reviewing the cookie policies of any third-party services you interact with on our Website.
